Celebrate Independence Day and the NPS Centennial

July 4, 2016
10:00 am — 3:30 pm

Join the National Park Service in celebrating our nation's birthday as well as the NPS Centennial for an Independence Day celebration filled with special programs and activities.

The day-long event at Federal Hall will feature colonial-era reenactors, including George Washington and Ben Franklin, a display of 18th Century maps of New York, a reenactor reading of the Declaration of Independence, an NPS ranger-conducted program entitled, "Battle for New York", a Washington reenactor with "Meet George Washington", and a Franklin re-enactor with "Ben Franklin's Reflections on Independence and July 4th"

Children are invited to receive a Junior Ranger Badge at the Visitor Center.

Follow in Washington's footsteps with the self-guided walking tour "Washington's New York." Pick up a copy of the guide at the Visitor Center.
